

SAVE Liberty in America

buy now
LIBERTY BONDS
Be a Stockholder in Your Own Government!!

Powdered Pumice Paint Cold Water Paints

5 lbs. for 75 cents, freight prepaid. Makes one Gallon Paint.
For barns, fences, outbuildings, and for painting the trimmings to protect from weather. Send check or money order to
Murray Marks Pumice Mill
5th and Seneca Streets
Phone 3244 St. Joseph, Mo.

Lice-Proof Nests

MAKING SPECIAL OFFER
We have just received a large quantity of lice-proof nests for sale at a special price. These nests are made of a special material which is impervious to lice and other insects. They are perfect for use in all kinds of nests, and are guaranteed to keep your nests free from lice and other insects. Write for more information.
BEAMAN-SCHUBERT METAL WORKS CO.
ST. JOSEPH, MISSOURI

Drink or Drug Users Invited

TO DEPOSIT our regular price with any kind of NEAL INSURANCE, No. 22 North 9th Street, St. Joseph, Mo. Phone Main 1234. We will refund the full amount to any patient who is not entirely satisfied at the end of a complete course of Doctor Neal's treatment. Ask for booklet, 60 Neal Institutes in Principal Cities.

YOU GET WELL WITHOUT DRUGS

ON NATURE

W. W. WALKER

Chiropractic Doctor of 11 Years' Experience

Rooms 19-21, 1st Floor, 12th and Commercial Bldg. Phone Main 4224

A. C. HAMM FUEL AND TRANSFER CO.

We are now equipped with two motor trucks and are in the business of all kinds of fuel and transfer work. Write for catalogue. 2102 Olive Street, Office Phone 769, Res. phone 7153.

St. Joseph Pleat- ing Co.

DRAPS, pleating, remodeling, etc. Write for catalogue. 111 N. 11th St., St. Joseph, Mo.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given to all heirs, legatees and creditors of the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, that the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, is being settled by the Probate Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, and that the final settlement of the estate will be made on the first Monday of June, 1918.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to all heirs, legatees, and creditors of the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, that the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, is being settled by the Probate Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, and that the final settlement of the estate will be made on the first Monday of June, 1918.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to all heirs, legatees, and creditors of the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, that the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, is being settled by the Probate Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, and that the final settlement of the estate will be made on the first Monday of June, 1918.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to all heirs, legatees, and creditors of the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, that the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, is being settled by the Probate Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, and that the final settlement of the estate will be made on the first Monday of June, 1918.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to all heirs, legatees, and creditors of the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, that the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, is being settled by the Probate Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, and that the final settlement of the estate will be made on the first Monday of June, 1918.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to all heirs, legatees, and creditors of the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, that the estate of John H. Walker, deceased, is being settled by the Probate Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, and that the final settlement of the estate will be made on the first Monday of June, 1918.

NEWS FROM ALL OVER IMPERIAL MISSOURI

Interesting Happenings Which Have Taken Place
In the Greatest State in the Union

The Product of the Scissors, the Pen and a Very Little Actual Labor

With county women auctioned ten loads of corn robes at a Red Cross sale in Grant City.

Verily, here is a sign of the times! Two Florida loaded with grapes passed through Liberty a few days ago.

Peace Valley, Howell county, wants the world to know that the only kind it wants is peace with victory.

The Springfield Leader reports that the Clark honey crop is expected to break records for quantity and quality.

While tolling sheep fates, let us not forget that one of Frank Weckman's flock up in Pittsburg, where 236 ewes have 235 lambs.

The fifty members of the Business Girls' Club of Maryville offer to put in a life truck garden if some patriot will lend the ground.

Hughes Township, Nodaway county, raised $250 in cash, a car load of hogs and $1,750, the proceeds of an auction sale at Graham.

Every ear of tested corn offered in the Carroll county sale Saturday was sold, the 134 bushels bringing $1,975, an average of about $5.85.

It was a big Belton sensation when seven prominent citizens were yanked by the night watch, charged with the seductive diversion of shooting craps.

You don't necessarily have to go to France to taste the thrills and dangers of war. A powder mill in Webb City is advertising for one hundred men, at once.

Besides their general contrariness, the Brookfield Argus points out that motor cars are like human beings in that the horn of the driver often tells the tale.

Girl students at Stephens College bought $5,000 worth of Liberty Bonds, and it is feared that for several days the effect on candy and sundae sales will be something fearful.

J. N. Stensbraker prophesies that when we have women soldiers it will be easy to raise an infantry draft army. "None of them will be more than 31 years old," he explains.

Miss Mabel of Doniphan has announced her candidacy for recorder of deeds of Ripley county and, among other qualifications, confesses that she is of lawful age to hold the office.

Merced county made a most remarkable record in the Third Liberty Loan drive. It more than doubled its quota the first day of the drive, the first county in the state to do this.

A line of $400 and costs for dynamiting fish in the Current river was the sentence imposed on Leander and John Harris by Judge E. P. Dorris of the Circuit court circuit court Monday.

A press agent who evidently never lived in the circus calls the voice of Gail-Cheri "battered moonshine." Gail-Cheri may understand that to mean it sound like that of a white horse.

Ernest Cook, of Mount City, aged 42 years, took his life while lying in bed at his home, Tuesday morning, between ten and eleven o'clock, using a revolver, and sending the ball through the right temple.

A Brookfield boy, according to the Argus, explained to his mother that the reason he flunked on a history examination was that the teacher asked him about things which happened before he was born.

Some one passed on the Pleasant Hill postmaster for a dollar a French five franc piece of the date of 1912.

CHANDLEE'S

WALL PAPER

Paint, Glass, Painters' and Paperhangers' Tools

SIGNS OF ALL KINDS

Everything You Need to do Any Kind of Painting, Papering or Decorating.

CHANDLEE PAINT AND GLASS COMPANY

417 EDMOND STREET

the information that the boys were going "east," where they would need deadlier weapons.

Way back in the sticks of Benton county they still have egg roads. While up in Clay county the folks along the route of a popular rural free delivery carrier treated him to an egg shower as he drove by. No, they didn't throw 'em, but they just pelted them in his buggy with the best of good wishes, until he had 40 dozen.

Missourians aren't the only ones who have to be shown. A Kansas girl wrote the Young Men's Business Club of Springfield that she loved her sweetheart dearly and wouldn't question his word for anything, but was he really doing as well in Springfield as he said he was? And the sentimental club replied that it could not locate the young man.

John W. Cunningham, a soldier who had deserted from Camp Pike, Ark., was arrested at Princeton last week and while in the county jail there attempted to kill himself by cutting his arm with a razor, according to the Princeton Post. He was taken to a hospital and revived and later taken to the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas.

A West Plains girl who gave up her training as a nurse less than a year ago to wed one of her patients at the Barge-Deaconess Hospital in Springfield has just returned to the hospital to complete her course, her husband having joined the marines. She hopes to see him "over there," but not in her official capacity.

Mrs. John T. Donaghy of Macon county is becoming known as "the somebody care woman." Since last August she has kept in touch, as far as possible, with every one of the three hundred Macon county boys who are in the army and navy. Her desire is to make it impossible for any of the boys to feel that nobody cares about him.

Thieves, like lightning, sometimes strike in places where least expected. The Salisbury Press-Spectator reports that while its force was out for lunch on the other day someone entered the office, opened the safe and took all the money therefrom. And the amount stolen was a dignified sum. It was about four hundred and fifty cents.

Replying to his wife's suit for divorce there, Fred J. Herzog, prominent dry goods merchant of St. Louis, testified that the second day of their married life, his wife initiated him into the mysteries of assisting to dress her. The most important of his newly acquired duties was to powder his wife's hair, at which, she declared, he was clumsy.

When Rev. Tucker was preaching in Bolivar the other day, a member of his congregation gave him a pig which he carried home in his Ford. Another brother, seeing the preacher and his pig, said, "I'll give you that black cow over there if you will take her the same way." So the parson came right back, and after strapping his pig, he couldn't kick, Tucker took right home in his jitney.

Rockport special road district in Boone county and Boonville township in Cooper county shortly will vote on bond issues for macadamizing the Old Trails Highway, and both issues are expected to carry. Some day the people along the Old Trails will erect a monument to Judge J. M. Lowe, president of the National Old Trails Association, for the splendid work he has done for better roads.

Four prisoners, three of whom were members of the Youngmen automobile bandits who terrorized Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, escaped from the hospital ward of the county jail at Carthage Friday night. They were Roy D. Crenshaw, Bert Crawford, Raymond Dean and Hugh Sergeant. All were suffering from smallpox and were in a detention hospital, where they were under guard.

Just because a poor cuss is in jail, he shouldn't be expected to stand everything. So when they rammed a pro-German into the Springfield jail the other prisoners straightway convened the kangaroo court in special session and finding him guilty, paddled him to a fare-you-well. Then he was told to go to his cell and stay there. Every time a prisoner takes a drink he throws what water is left in the cup on the Boche.

Maybe you were trying to forget that you ever thought this, but the Sarcotic Record calls it to mind: Twelve months ago many persons were heard saying something like this: Germany wants the United States to enter the war so that she may surrender and save her face by saying, "We can't fight the whole world." That example of ancient wisdom is comparable to present-day arguments against the third Liberty Loan.

Grant Deater, a St. Louis photographer, took out a life policy ten years ago, naming a woman he refuses now to identify, as beneficiary. Although she dropped out of sight, she always kept up the premiums, and recently he has several times found his gas jet open at night, making him think that a woman was seeking to cash in on his policy. Accordingly he has had it canceled by the company and published an advertisement, stating that he had done so.

The Red Cross chapter at Dearborn gave a miscellaneous sale and netted $415.70. A little white hen was sold again and again until she brought $32.50, a lamb accompanied by a bottle brought $8.50, a four-weeks-old pig $6.75, a quart of grape juice $7.50, a hundred pound sack of sugar $26, a cotton quilt $27.50, a dozen eggs $10, and so on.

A Carrollton merchant has made a discovery that may have a tremendous effect upon the coal situation next winter, helpfully reports the Republican Record. He says that the problem of keeping his loafers warm, owing to the coal shortage, had reached alarming proportions, when one day he discovered that by painting big red spots on the back of the bowl, he had been able to run his stove with practically no coal, and at the same time perfectly satisfy his trade.

Roy Godsey, managing editor of the Webb City Herald, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for representative in the legislature from the central district of Jasper county. Mr. Godsey for several years has taken keen interest in state legislative affairs and a leading part in efforts for a uniform textbook law and other needed legislation. In fact, Mr. Godsey appears to be rather an exception—a man who wants to go to the legislature because he has some ideas of his own about what should be done there.

You're settin' at home, my brother, you don't hear the shriekin' shell; you ain't got a thing to bother, you're certain there ain't no hell. If you had to face the devil, a shootin' straight at yer head, now what would you think, on the level, of the man that denied you bread? If you had to face the sabers, as the fellers in khaki do, you'd telegraph home to the neighbors, "Instead of one hell, there's two; I reckon you'd cuss the slacker that wouldn't send you relief. If you asked for a little terbacker, or bullets, or guns, or beef. But you're settin' at home, old feller, under the peaceful skies; you're just a fast rate story teller; you're handy at swappin' lies, while the bravest boys you know of are darin' the jaws of death, do you think it's proper to blow off an' not send nothin' but breath?—Uncle John in the Excelsior Springs Standard.

The school children disposed of a large number of tickets Thursday and Friday for the spring festival of music which opens next Wednesday.

The local Red Cross is getting ready for the big drive to begin May 20, at which time the nation will raise $100,000,000. St. Joseph's quota, it is estimated, will be $50,000.

David Bros. have filed suit for $7,012.50 against Dr. Jacob Geiger for commissions claimed to be due for procuring a tenant for the property at Sixth and Francis now being built on for The Leader.

Five men were accepted at the local recruiting station Thursday.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Excelsior Feed Milling Co. will be held at the office of the company Twenty-second and Gerfield Avenue, St. Joseph, Mo., on TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1918, at 10 o'clock a.m. of that day, for the election of officers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

E. M. AUSTIN, WILLIAM HILLMAN, Secretary. President.

S. B. UTZ Dealer in HIGH-CLASS HORSES AND MULES

Special attention given to matched pairs.

We have on hand an unusually large lot of high class farm mules 2 to 6 years old, from 1100 to 1400 lbs. Also Yellow Dent seed corn for sale.

Cor. Lake and Cherokee St. Res. Phone Rural 2848 2 rings. Office Phone, South 125.

Grant Deater, a St. Louis photographer, took out a life policy ten years ago, naming a woman he refuses now to identify, as beneficiary. Although she dropped out of sight, she always kept up the premiums, and recently he has several times found his gas jet open at night, making him think that a woman was seeking to cash in on his policy. Accordingly he has had it canceled by the company and published an advertisement, stating that he had done so.

The Red Cross chapter at Dearborn gave a miscellaneous sale and netted $415.70. A little white hen was sold again and again until she brought $32.50, a lamb accompanied by a bottle brought $8.50, a four-weeks-old pig $6.75, a quart of grape juice $7.50, a hundred pound sack of sugar $26, a cotton quilt $27.50, a dozen eggs $10, and so on.

A Carrollton merchant has made a discovery that may have a tremendous effect upon the coal situation next winter, helpfully reports the Republican Record. He says that the problem of keeping his loafers warm, owing to the coal shortage, had reached alarming proportions, when one day he discovered that by painting big red spots on the back of the bowl, he had been able to run his stove with practically no coal, and at the same time perfectly satisfy his trade.

Roy Godsey, managing editor of the Webb City Herald, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for representative in the legislature from the central district of Jasper county. Mr. Godsey for several years has taken keen interest in state legislative affairs and a leading part in efforts for a uniform textbook law and other needed legislation. In fact, Mr. Godsey appears to be rather an exception—a man who wants to go to the legislature because he has some ideas of his own about what should be done there.

You're settin' at home, my brother, you don't hear the shriekin' shell; you ain't got a thing to bother, you're certain there ain't no hell. If you had to face the devil, a shootin' straight at yer head, now what would you think, on the level, of the man that denied you bread? If you had to face the sabers, as the fellers in khaki do, you'd telegraph home to the neighbors, "Instead of one hell, there's two; I reckon you'd cuss the slacker that wouldn't send you relief. If you asked for a little terbacker, or bullets, or guns, or beef. But you're settin' at home, old feller, under the peaceful skies; you're just a fast rate story teller; you're handy at swappin' lies, while the bravest boys you know of are darin' the jaws of death, do you think it's proper to blow off an' not send nothin' but breath?—Uncle John in the Excelsior Springs Standard.

The school children disposed of a large number of tickets Thursday and Friday for the spring festival of music which opens next Wednesday.

The local Red Cross is getting ready for the big drive to begin May 20, at which time the nation will raise $100,000,000. St. Joseph's quota, it is estimated, will be $50,000.

David Bros. have filed suit for $7,012.50 against Dr. Jacob Geiger for commissions claimed to be due for procuring a tenant for the property at Sixth and Francis now being built on for The Leader.

Five men were accepted at the local recruiting station Thursday.

LOCAL MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Continued from Page Five

suit of the infirmities of age. She was ninety-four years and six months old, and had lived in St. Joseph for fifty-two years. Beside Mrs. Neudorff three other children survive. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

The school children disposed of a large number of tickets Thursday and Friday for the spring festival of music which opens next Wednesday.

The local Red Cross is getting ready for the big drive to begin May 20, at which time the nation will raise $100,000,000. St. Joseph's quota, it is estimated, will be $50,000.

David Bros. have filed suit for $7,012.50 against Dr. Jacob Geiger for commissions claimed to be due for procuring a tenant for the property at Sixth and Francis now being built on for The Leader.

Five men were accepted at the local recruiting station Thursday.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Excelsior Feed Milling Co. will be held at the office of the company Twenty-second and Gerfield Avenue, St. Joseph, Mo., on TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1918, at 10 o'clock a.m. of that day, for the election of officers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

E. M. AUSTIN, WILLIAM HILLMAN, Secretary. President.

S. B. UTZ

Dealer in HIGH-CLASS HORSES AND MULES

Special attention given to matched pairs.

We have on hand an unusually large lot of high class farm mules 2 to 6 years old, from 1100 to 1400 lbs. Also Yellow Dent seed corn for sale.

Cor. Lake and Cherokee St. Res. Phone Rural 2848 2 rings. Office Phone, South 125.

Grant Deater, a St. Louis photographer, took out a life policy ten years ago, naming a woman he refuses now to identify, as beneficiary. Although she dropped out of sight, she always kept up the premiums, and recently he has several times found his gas jet open at night, making him think that a woman was seeking to cash in on his policy. Accordingly he has had it canceled by the company and published an advertisement, stating that he had done so.

The Red Cross chapter at Dearborn gave a miscellaneous sale and netted $415.70. A little white hen was sold again and again until she brought $32.50, a lamb accompanied by a bottle brought $8.50, a four-weeks-old pig $6.75, a quart of grape juice $7.50, a hundred pound sack of sugar $26, a cotton quilt $27.50, a dozen eggs $10, and so on.

A Carrollton merchant has made a discovery that may have a tremendous effect upon the coal situation next winter, helpfully reports the Republican Record. He says that the problem of keeping his loafers warm, owing to the coal shortage, had reached alarming proportions, when one day he discovered that by painting big red spots on the back of the bowl, he had been able to run his stove with practically no coal, and at the same time perfectly satisfy his trade.

Roy Godsey, managing editor of the Webb City Herald, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for representative in the legislature from the central district of Jasper county. Mr. Godsey for several years has taken keen interest in state legislative affairs and a leading part in efforts for a uniform textbook law and other needed legislation. In fact, Mr. Godsey appears to be rather an exception—a man who wants to go to the legislature because he has some ideas of his own about what should be done there.

You're settin' at home, my brother, you don't hear the shriekin' shell; you ain't got a thing to bother, you're certain there ain't no hell. If you had to face the devil, a shootin' straight at yer head, now what would you think, on the level, of the man that denied you bread? If you had to face the sabers, as the fellers in khaki do, you'd telegraph home to the neighbors, "Instead of one hell, there's two; I reckon you'd cuss the slacker that wouldn't send you relief. If you asked for a little terbacker, or bullets, or guns, or beef. But you're settin' at home, old feller, under the peaceful skies; you're just a fast rate story teller; you're handy at swappin' lies, while the bravest boys you know of are darin' the jaws of death, do you think it's proper to blow off an' not send nothin' but breath?—Uncle John in the Excelsior Springs Standard.

The school children disposed of a large number of tickets Thursday and Friday for the spring festival of music which opens next Wednesday.

The local Red Cross is getting ready for the big drive to begin May 20, at which time the nation will raise $100,000,000. St. Joseph's quota, it is estimated, will be $50,000.

David Bros. have filed suit for $7,012.50 against Dr. Jacob Geiger for commissions claimed to be due for procuring a tenant for the property at Sixth and Francis now being built on for The Leader.

Five men were accepted at the local recruiting station Thursday.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Excelsior Feed Milling Co. will be held at the office of the company Twenty-second and Gerfield Avenue, St. Joseph, Mo., on TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1918, at 10 o'clock a.m. of that day, for the election of officers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

E. M. AUSTIN, WILLIAM HILLMAN, Secretary. President.

S. B. UTZ Dealer in HIGH-CLASS HORSES AND MULES

Special attention given to matched pairs.

We have on hand an unusually large lot of high class farm mules 2 to 6 years old, from 1100 to 1400 lbs. Also Yellow Dent seed corn for sale.

Cor. Lake and Cherokee St. Res. Phone Rural 2848 2 rings. Office Phone, South 125.

Grant Deater, a St. Louis photographer, took out a life policy ten years ago, naming a woman he refuses now to identify, as beneficiary. Although she dropped out of sight, she always kept up the premiums, and recently he has several times found his gas jet open at night, making him think that a woman was seeking to cash in on his policy. Accordingly he has had it canceled by the company and published an advertisement, stating that he had done so.

The Red Cross chapter at Dearborn gave a miscellaneous sale and netted $415.70. A little white hen was sold again and again until she brought $32.50, a lamb accompanied by a bottle brought $8.50, a four-weeks-old pig $6.75, a quart of grape juice $7.50, a hundred pound sack of sugar $26, a cotton quilt $27.50, a dozen eggs $10, and so on.

A Carrollton merchant has made a discovery that may have a tremendous effect upon the coal situation next winter, helpfully reports the Republican Record. He says that the problem of keeping his loafers warm, owing to the coal shortage, had reached alarming proportions, when one day he discovered that by painting big red spots on the back of the bowl, he had been able to run his stove with practically no coal, and at the same time perfectly satisfy his trade.

Roy Godsey, managing editor of the Webb City Herald, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for representative in the legislature from the central district of Jasper county. Mr. Godsey for several years has taken keen interest in state legislative affairs and a leading part in efforts for a uniform textbook law and other needed legislation. In fact, Mr. Godsey appears to be rather an exception—a man who wants to go to the legislature because he has some ideas of his own about what should be done there.

You're settin' at home, my brother, you don't hear the shriekin' shell; you ain't got a thing to bother, you're certain there ain't no hell. If you had to face the devil, a shootin' straight at yer head, now what would you think, on the level, of the man that denied you bread? If you had to face the sabers, as the fellers in khaki do, you'd telegraph home to the neighbors, "Instead of one hell, there's two; I reckon you'd cuss the slacker that wouldn't send you relief. If you asked for a little terbacker, or bullets, or guns, or beef. But you're settin' at home, old feller, under the peaceful skies; you're just a fast rate story teller; you're handy at swappin' lies, while the bravest boys you know of are darin' the jaws of death, do you think it's proper to blow off an' not send nothin' but breath?—Uncle John in the Excelsior Springs Standard.

The school children disposed of a large number of tickets Thursday and Friday for the spring festival of music which opens next Wednesday.

The local Red Cross is getting ready for the big drive to begin May 20, at which time the nation will raise $100,000,000. St. Joseph's quota, it is estimated, will be $50,000.

David Bros. have filed suit for $7,012.50 against Dr. Jacob Geiger for commissions claimed to be due for procuring a tenant for the property at Sixth and Francis now being built on for The Leader.

Five men were accepted at the local recruiting station Thursday.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Excelsior Feed Milling Co. will be held at the office of the company Twenty-second and Gerfield Avenue, St. Joseph, Mo., on TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1918, at 10 o'clock a.m. of that day, for the election of officers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

E. M. AUSTIN, WILLIAM HILLMAN, Secretary. President.

S. B. UTZ Dealer in HIGH-CLASS HORSES AND MULES

Special attention given to matched pairs.

We have on hand an unusually large lot of high class farm mules 2 to 6 years old, from 1100 to 1400 lbs. Also Yellow Dent seed corn for sale.

Cor. Lake and Cherokee St. Res. Phone Rural 2848 2 rings. Office Phone, South 125.

Grant Deater, a St. Louis photographer, took out a life policy ten years ago, naming a woman he refuses now